

The Daily Gazetteer:

SATURDAY, APRIL 29 1738.

91° 880.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Petersburg, April 4. O. S.

RONDEAU, the British Resident here, has received Letters from his Secretary whom he sent to Constantinople to acquaint the British and Dutch Ministers there, that their Masters had, at the Czarina's Request, granted their Mediation for accommodating the Quarrel with the Porte. Those Letters which are dated the 10th of February, O. S. import, that as soon as the Secretary arrived at Constantinople, which was on the 31st of January, the Ambassadors of Great Britain and Holland presented a Memorial to the Grand Vizier concerning the said Mediation, and that they were in hopes they should soon have a favourable Answer; tho' he adds, that the Answer which the Marquis de Villeneuve, the French Ambassador, is far from satisfactory, and that the Turks seem disposed to venture another Campaign. The last Advices from Persia say, that Kouli Kan persisted in his Refusal to ratify the Treaty lately concluded at Constantinople with the Ministers of the Ottoman Porte; but that however he was not yet in a Condition to undertake any thing against the Turks, by reason of the Troubles that still distract his Kingdom. The last Letters which the Court received from the Velt Marshal de Munich say, the Troops were actually on the March to Perekolowna, the general Rendezvous of the Army, and had already begun to lay a Bridge over the Dnieper, which they hop'd to pass by the Beginning of next Month. The General adds, that the Army will be finer and more numerous this Year than the last. They write from Oczakow, that a capital Mine has been discover'd there, wherein the Turks had laid up 180 Barrels of Gunpowder.

Vienna, April 17. O. S. Several Expresses arrived from Hungary bring Advice, that the Turks are in full March from sundry Places; and 'tis given out, that a Detachment of their's from Widdin has taken Semendria, and put the Garrison, consisting of 50 Men, under a Lieutenant, to the Sword; that another Detachment from Wallachia, has invested Orsova and Vipalanka; that a third Detachment had likewise attempted to enter the Barrage of Temiswaer, but was repuls'd; and that another Body of Turks was marching towards Sabatich, and even threaten'd, after the Conquest of that Place, to march towards Belgrade, before the Imperial Army could assemble. Upon these Advices, Orders are dispatch'd to the Generals and other Officers, to repair to their Posts before the 9th of next Month; and to the Troops, to put themselves on the March forthwith, so as to be at the general Rendezvous at Semlin on the 14th inst. The Velt Marshal de Konigegg will set out the 4th of the same Month for Belgrade; but some say, that the Prince of Saxe Hilburghausen has the Emperor's Leave to make the next Campaign at Home with his new married Lady; and who, besides the Presents of Jewels and Money which she has made to that Prince, to the amount of above 150,000 Florins, has given him 200,000 Florins in Money, the late Prince Eugene's Palace in this City, and his fine Seat at Hoff. The Count de Kollowrath, Privy Counsellor, and Chancellor of Bohemia, died here on the 8th Instant, 60 Years of Age.

The News of the Turks Entrance into Transylvania, does not seem to be well confirm'd, nor that of the Conspiracy discover'd in that Province; for we have Letters from Hermanstadt of the 2d Instant, which manifestly contradict all that has been published of that Affair; but what appears more certain is, that the Turks, after having forced the Pass of the Iron Gate, and endeavoured to destroy one of the chief Copper Mines of Transylvania, were prevented in their Design by the Prince de Lobkowitz. Count Seckendorff having always declared, that the ill Success of the Emperor's Arms was principally owing to his limited Power during the last Campaign, it has been judg'd, in the late Deliberations, for the Measures to be taken in the next, that the Obligation which the Generals have laid under to inform the Court before-hand of every Motion they proposed to make, often hinder'd them from taking the only favourable Opportunity for Action; and that therefore it was necessary that the Great Duke of Tuscany, with a certain Number of Counsellors, should have a full Power to lay hold of every Opportunity that he thought fit: And in pursuance hereof it has been determined, that several Members of the Council of War shall repair to the Army with the Count de Konigegg, the President of the said Council, in order to give their Opinion as often as any Resolution of Importance shall be in question.

A Letter from Belgrade of the 21st ult. O. S. says, that a Party of Turks came lately into one of the Suburbs and murder'd six Peasants who were at work in a Vineyard there, and cut off the Nose, Ears and Lips of a Collier. 'Tis added, that they are making Preparations there as if they expected a Siege.

BOSTON.

At a Council held at the Council Chamber in Boston, on Thursday March 9, 1737

The sorrowful News of the Death of our most gracious Queen Caroline, being confirmed (agreeable to the Affidavits of Alexander Sear and John Webster, jun. taken on Oath before this Board on Tuesday the 28th of February last) by Advices from divers Parts.

Voted, That the proper funeral Solemnities be observed on Thursday the 23d Instant, the Governor and Council then to appear in Mourning; and that the Rev. Mr. Samuel Mather (to whom it belongs in course, to preach the publick Lecture in Bolton) be desired to prepare a Sermon suitable to this Occasion; and that all the Bells of the Churches in Bolton be toll'd from 8 to 11 o'Clock in the Morning, and to intermit during the Lecture, and to be toll'd from 2 after Lecture to 5 o'Clock in the Afternoon, and that his Excellency be desired to give Orders for the Discharge of the Ordnance at his Majesty's Castle William, in funeral Manner; and that the Secretary be directed to notify the absent Members of the Council, that so they may appear at Boston in Mourning on the said Day; and that the Pulpit of the Brick Church be put in Mourning on that Day; and that the Sheriff of the County of Suffolk be directed to provide a sufficient Quantity of fine black Broad Cloth for that Purpose, and see it put up accordingly.

The same Day his Excellency, with the Advice of his Majesty's Council, was pleased to order, That Thursday the 15th Day of April next, be observ'd as a Day of publick Fasting and Prayer throughout this Province.

We are informed from Framingham, that on the 6th Day of this Instant March, a Thunder Storm arose (and was, considering the Time of Year, the more surprizing.) The Thunder struck the Ground next to the House of Mr. Uriah Drury, made its Way thro' the Grouncil, run over the Floor, and which is wonderful, made its Passage under the opposite Groundell. It split an Apple-tree near the House into Quarters, as also a Step Stone at the fore Door of the House. Two of the said Drury's Children was struck down, and it was feared that they were both dead; but 'tis hoped that they will recover thro' the sparing and healing Mercy of God.

We hear that the Farm House belonging to the Honourable Lieutenant Governor Phipps, took Fire on Saturday last, and burnt down to the Damage of his Honour, as is reported, at least 1000 l.

IRELAND.

Dublin, April 22. We hear from Belfast, that on Saturday last William Montgomery, an Inn-keeper in that Town, was hanged there at the Market house for entertaining Robbers, tho' he positively denied that he knew them to be such, and behaved very penitently for two Hours on the Ladder, reading in the New Testament, and sung several Psalms. His Behavior moved the Spectators to a great degree by his fervent Prayers.

His Grace the Lord Primate hath presented the Rev. Dr. Jenny, to the Rectorship of Armagh, void by the Death of the Rev. Mr. Whalley. And

His Grace hath given the said Dr. Jenny's Livings and Archdeaconry to the Rev. Mr. Congreve, his Grace's Chaplain.

It is expected, that we shall have Press Warrants, to impress Seamen by the next Packets; and it is said, that the Port-Mahon Man of War will come into our Harbour for that Purpose.

Last Tuesday died the Right Hon. the Lady Viscountess Mountcashell, at her Seat at St. Catherine's near Dublin, universally lamented by all who had the Happiness of knowing her, and by those especially, who are truly sensible of so great and good an Example being withdrawn from a World, where at present, we have not many Instances of those in her Quality, to lead others in the most honourable Paths of Religion and Virtue. To say all that is due to her Memory, would require a full Treatise of her distinguished Life; but I shall only give a small Sketch of her Character: That she was a sincere good Christian, the best Parent, the most unalterable Friend, obliging Neighbour, excessively charable to the real Needy, benevolent even to Strangers, and to crown all, her Humility (notwithstanding she was descended from one of the most noble, ancient Families in Europe), was such, that she treated those who were in a very great Degree her Inferiors, with as much Respect, as if they had been her Equals. Such a Loss, we cannot enough lament: Yet submitting to the Hand, which took her hence, we can not but mingle some Joy with our Tears, that she now possessest the Eternal Reward, due to the good and faithful Servant.

A Challenge hath been sent over to England, to run four Miles at Newmarket, Mr. Pigott's Chestnut Horse Infante, who won the great Plate at the Curragh, against any Horse in Great Britain, for Two thousand Guineas, at any Weight under Twelve Stone.

To Persons of either Sex Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other NERVOUS DECAYS.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES,

PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other nervous

Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprizing Success, even so infallibly to cure by it the

Palsy, and all Paralytic Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments, might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels)

as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon find all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Resolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful

Contractions of them, vanish and return no more; and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard Drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wish'd for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates

the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of

'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons,

Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralytic Disorders and Nervous Decays

suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

The Princely beautifying LOTION.

whose INIMITABLE VIRTUES and TRANSCENDENT EXCELLENCE have gained it so much Reputation, that envious Imitators endeavour, tho' in vain, to counterfeit it.

It beautifies the Face, Neck, and Hands to the utmost Perfection, and is in the greatest Esteem among Ladies, &c. of the first Quality. No Words can sufficiently express its Virtues; for it is not of the Nature of Paint, which puts a false and unnatural Gloss on the Skin; but is a Remedy that, by its Use, really gives a Lustre to the most Beautiful, by shewing the fine Features of the Face, and is so safe, not having the least Grain of Mercury in it, that it may be taken inwardly, and if smil'd to, is really good against Vapours.

It infallibly kill Worms in the Face, takes away Freckles, Spots, Wrinkles, Pits, or Marks of the Small-Pox, and assuredly cures any Defects in the Face, giving a charming youthful Lustre and fine Air to the Features, to Admiration.

As for such Persons as are of a swarthy Complexion, or tanned with any disagreeable Redness, Roughness, Morbidity, Heats, or the like, it is not to be parallel'd; for it immediately smooths, clears, plumps, nourishes, and whitens the Skin to the last Degree, and makes those Persons who before look'd bagged and old, to look young, beautiful, and fair, and, in short, it far exceeds any thing that was ever yet known or made publick, for clearing and beautifying the Skin.
